

SCG LEGAL WELCOMES FIVE NEW MEMBER FIRMS [UPDATED]

October 8, 2020 (Washington, DC) – Voting representatives from SCG Legal have voted in five new member firms, expanding the network’s membership to 116 law firms across 59 countries totaling more than 12,000 attorneys. The new member firms to join include, Scharf Banks; Batalla, Skau Reipurth & Partnere; Beauchamps; and Dilinh Legal, effective October 12, 2020.

“We are pleased to welcome these five new member firms to our worldwide network, each of which is highly ranked in its home jurisdiction,” noted Alina Gorokhovsky, CEO, SCG Legal. “Our new members will further our global reach, expand our resources and extend expertise and influence across the full-range of legal practices to assist clients with matters of all sizes.”

Dynamic collaboration, a hallmark of SCG Legal, ensures member firms attract and retain clients from a wide variety of industries that offer more value and a full suite of international services. The new firms to join SCG Legal will enable members to better serve clients through its trusted referral network of experienced and politically connected attorneys and professionals.

“Our member firms are unified by a culture of premier legal practices and industry leadership, with an elevated dedication to client service and responsiveness,” explained Thaddeus E. Morgan, SCG Legal Chairman & Shareholder with Fraser Trebilcock. “The addition of these highly regarded firms not only expand our geographic footprint, but also strengthens the ability for member firms to provide accurate and comprehensive information about activities in major commercial centers and capitals around the world.”
