

Henry Bubel is a tax lawyer at New York City member firm Patterson Belknap Webb & Tyler and chairman of SCG Legal. He has in-depth knowledge of the income taxation of both corporations and partnerships, as well as estate, gift and trust taxation, particularly for ultra-high net worth and cross-border families. Mr. Bubel applies this knowledge in both tax planning and tax controversies, often working with family offices and trust companies. He is especially knowledgeable about tax-efficient methods of diversifying the risks associated with concentrated stock positions, life insurance tax issues and insurance products. Mr. Bubel received his J.D. from American University Washington College of Law and his LL.M. from New York University School of Law.

Glyn T. Davies was nominated U.S. Ambassador to Thailand by President Obama on April 14, 2015, confirmed by the Senate on August 5, 2015, and sworn in on September 14, 2015. He previously served as the special representative of the U.S. Secretary of State for North Korea Policy, where he was responsible for coordinating U.S. involvement in the Six-Party Talks process, as well as all other aspects of U.S. security, political, economic, human rights, and humanitarian assistance policy regarding North Korea. A career member of the Senior Foreign Service, Ambassador Davies also served as the permanent representative of the United States to the International Atomic Energy Agency and the United Nations Office in Vienna. Ambassador Davies holds a Bachelor of Science in Foreign Service from Georgetown University and a Master of Science in national security strategy from the National War College in Washington, D.C.

Somboon Earterasarn is a partner in Thailand member firm Tilleke & Gibbins' intellectual property group. He has extensive experience handling a diverse range of IP matters across various Southeast Asian countries and beyond. Mr. Earterasarn is well known for his vast knowledge of IP protection, and he has presented on the topic to numerous organizations based in ASEAN. He is also an expert in formulating strategies for the successful management of worldwide trademark portfolios, as well as employing customized techniques for protecting and enforcing clients' trademark rights on a global basis. He specializes in international trademark registrations, licensing, assignments, copyright recordal, software recordal, and reviewing and constructing distributorship contracts.

Kristina Fischer is associate vice president of business development and legal services for Centara Hotels & Resorts. She is responsible for expanding Centara's portfolio overseas and all legal matters of the group. Ms. Fischer has helped Centara establish operations in Shanghai and expand into other international destinations including Qatar, Oman and the UAE. Prior to joining Centara, she worked as a corporate commercial and real estate lawyer at Baker McKenzie in Bangkok and at Black Dawson and Ashurst in Singapore, where she specialized in legal issues related to the hospitality industry. Ms. Fischer has an LL.B. from King's College London and a master's degree in international relations from Thammasat University.

John Frangos is a consultant in Thailand member firm Tilleke & Gibbins' dispute resolution group. He has substantial experience assisting clients with complex disputes in Thailand and Vietnam including aviation litigation, anti-corruption investigations and compliance, government investigations, business crime, and cross-border disputes. He leads the firm's aviation disputes practice and co-leads the firm's regional anti-corruption practice group. Having lived and worked in Thailand and Vietnam for almost ten years, Mr. Frangos brings extensive knowledge of local business practices and customs. Admitted to practice law in New York, he is also certified as an international compliance and ethics professional by the Compliance Certification Board, and is a member of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators.

David Lyman is an iconic figure in the Thailand legal community, where he is chairman and chief values officer of Tilleke & Gibbins. Mr. Lyman provides straightforward, practical advice to multinational corporations and small and medium-sized enterprises on foreign direct investment, mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance, and anti-corruption issues. He is widely regarded as the go-to lawyer for cases involving extraordinary situations, from representing foreign journalists accused of defamation, to setting a precedent for determining compensation in wrongful death cases, and from locking horns with the Royal Thai Navy over the rights of maritime treasure hunters, to defense work in labor and criminal matters. He has held key positions at the World Economic Forum's Davos annual meeting for 18 years, in the International Chamber of Commerce's commission on corporate responsibility and anti-corruption, and on the advisory council of the International Crisis Group. A graduate of the University of California Hastings College of the Law, Mr. Lyman currently serves on its board of governors.

Tom Pickthorn is a partner at England member firm Mills & Reeve, where he heads its international team in London. He focuses his practice on mergers and acquisitions, buy-outs, flotations, shareholders' agreements and corporate restructuring, representing large multinationals, public and private companies and individual investors. Chambers UK and Legal 500 have described him as "client focused," "supportive, commercial and pragmatic for cross-border deals." Mr. Pickthorn is a graduate of The University of Law.

David Poisson became CEO of SCG Legal in 2011. Previously, he was of counsel to the law firm of Howe Anderson & Steyer in Washington, D.C. He was elected in 2005 to the first of two terms in the Virginia General Assembly, where he served as deputy House minority whip. Mr. Poisson was also legislative director and chief counsel to the late Senator Terry Sanford of North Carolina and subsequently served as chief of staff and counsel to then-Representative, now Assistant Senate Minority Leader, Richard Durbin of Illinois. He received his Ph.D. and J.D. from the University of Arizona and his bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst.

Quek Li Fei is a partner at Colin Ng in Singapore, where he specializes in banking and finance law, corporate finance restructuring, trade finance, consumer finance, acquisitions, joint ventures, Singapore law regulatory and compliance issues, infrastructure and investment work, computer contracts, trusts, private clients' work and general corporate law. Mr. Quek has represented Singapore banks and Singapore branches of foreign banks on various debt and equity issues including the extension of credit facilities to foreign borrowers in Indochina, the People's Republic of China, Korea, ASEAN, the Bahamas, Panama and the United Kingdom. He is also actively involved in corporate and loan restructuring involving Indonesian, Thai and Singaporean corporations. A member of the Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners, Mr. Quek has been consulted on various aspects of trust law by trustee corporations and is also actively involved in advising on and setting up trusts and off-shore structures for private clients.

Michael Ramirez is a senior consultant in the dispute resolution group of Thailand member firm Tilleke & Gibbins' Bangkok office, where he assists major international clients in a range of domestic and international disputes including product liability, employment, customs and excise, and transportation and logistics. He serves as an advisor on the strategic aspects of claims management for international litigation, cross-jurisdictional disputes, and compliance with local and foreign anti-corruption laws including the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act. A member of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, Mr. Ramirez' practice also encompasses representing clients in arbitration and mediation proceedings. He is a regular presenter on dispute resolution and commercial practice topics and has been the recipient of the American Bar Association's Rule of Law Award for his presentations on attorney ethics. He received his J.D. at the University of California Hastings College of the Law.

Michelle Ray-Jones is a consultant in Thailand member firm Tilleke & Gibbins' intellectual property group in Bangkok. She is an experienced practitioner in matters involving complex intellectual property litigation and prosecution. With the bulk of her practice focusing on Thai and international trademark protection and enforcement, Ms. Ray-Jones advises on trademark searches, applications, registrations, maintenance, and enforcement issues. She is also regularly engaged in the preparation of contracts and releases for trademarks, copyrights, and trade secrets. A graduate of Brooklyn Law School, Ms. Ray-Jones is licensed to practice in New York and is admitted in the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York. She has successfully represented clients before the federal courts of the United States and the United States Trademark Trial and Appeal Board.

Pradeep Kumar Singh is a partner at Colin Ng in Singapore, where he specializes in corporate matters including the rendering of advice in relation to investments, joint ventures, acquisitions and disposals of businesses, assets and shares, restructuring and shareholder agreements. Mr. Singh is also experienced in corporate finance matters including initial public offerings, rights issues, private placements and employee share option and share schemes and bond issues. As co-head of the firm's employment practice group, he regularly advises on the whole spectrum of employment law issues from the onset of the employment relationship to its termination as well as immigration issues and applications. Mr. Singh is also head of Colin Ng's compliance and regulatory practice group, in which capacity he also oversees all of the firm's work in relation to compliance and regulatory matters including the setting up of operations in Singapore, licensing requirements, compliance issues for both private and listed companies and corporate governance issues.

Yingyong Tanthanapongphan is IP manager at the corporate technology office of Siam Cement Group. Established in 2006, the corporate technology office is the strategic unit for technology and IP management and commercialization. Since 2009, Mr. Tanthanapongphan has implemented IP management platforms across business units. The platforms encompass IP creation, IP protection and IP commercialization. These projects have been integrated into business functions and have had a significant impact on the company's business performance and growth. Mr. Tanthanapongphan has recently shifted his focus to the development of IP valuation and licensing. Mr. Tanthanapongphan obtained an LL.M. from Harvard Law School and an LL.M. in corporate governance and practice from Stanford Law School. He is a regular guest speaker and lecturer on strategic IP management and commercialization at Thailand's Department of Intellectual Property, universities and research institutes.

Suebsiri Taweepon is a partner at Tilleke & Gibbins specializing in intellectual property. Mr. Taweepon has experience in a wide range of intellectual property matters including litigation, licensing, and registration of intellectual property rights, with particular emphasis in computer software and technology-related industries. He has been involved in several government consultations and has a great deal of experience in anti-counterfeiting matters including investigations of intellectual property infringement and criminal raid actions. In addition to his work at Tilleke & Gibbins, Mr. Taweepon is co-chair of the emerging IP rights committee of the Asian Patent Attorneys Association and is an adjunct lecturer on the faculty of law at Chulalongkorn University.

William Thornton is a partner at Minnesota member firm Larkin Hoffman Daly & Lindgren, where he advises clients on international business transactions and related compliance matters. He helps clients expand businesses overseas, comply with U.S. laws and regulations, and helps foreign businesses enter the U.S. or expand U.S. operations. Mr. Thornton started practicing law in 1978 as an intellectual property trial lawyer and has held in-house counsel positions with Land O' Lakes and DataCard. He also served as director of international marketing for Land O' Lakes, enabling him to provide his clients both legal and practical business counsel. Mr. Thornton is a graduate of Hamline University School of Law.

Xu Jie is a senior partner at China member firm Beijing DHH Law Firm in its Shanghai office, where he chairs the firm's dispute resolution practice group and is vice chair of its real estate and construction practice group. Mr. Xu specializes in dispute resolution especially involving complex investment, financing, trade, maritime, real estate and infrastructure cases. He has also represented clients in landmark cases that have resulted in changes in maritime law. Mr. Xu is a graduate of East China University of Political Science and Law.

Yao Yuan is a partner at China member firm Beijing DHH Law Firm, where he focuses his practice on international trade, foreign investment and dispute resolution in China and abroad. Mr. Yao serves as legal counsel to several large scale trading enterprises in China such as Hiking Group, Shandong Foreign Trading Group and Laiwu Steel Group. He has vast experience in representing foreign clients and their interests, establishing representative offices in China and forming joint venture corporations and other business entities. He has also represented international clients such as Samsung Electronics and Cobra Europe in arbitration proceedings before the China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission, the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre, and the Shenzhen Arbitration Commission. Mr. Yao received his LL.B. from Zhongnan University of Economics and Law and his LL.M. from the University of Aberdeen School of Law in Scotland.

Suebsiri Taweepon is a partner at Tilleke & Gibbins specializing in intellectual property. Mr. Taweepon has experience in a wide range of intellectual property matters including litigation, licensing, and registration of intellectual property rights, with particular emphasis in computer software and technology-related industries. He has been involved in several government consultations and has a great deal of experience in anti-counterfeiting matters including investigations of intellectual property infringement and criminal raid actions. In addition to his work at Tilleke & Gibbins, Mr. Taweepon is co-chair of the emerging IP rights committee of the Asian Patent Attorneys Association and is an adjunct lecturer on the faculty of law at Chulalongkorn University.

William Thornton is a partner at Minnesota member firm Larkin Hoffman Daly & Lindgren, where he advises clients on international business transactions and related compliance matters. He helps clients expand businesses overseas, comply with U.S. laws and regulations, and helps foreign businesses enter the U.S. or expand U.S. operations. Mr. Thornton started practicing law in 1978 as an intellectual property trial lawyer and has held in-house counsel positions with Land O' Lakes and DataCard. He also served as director of international marketing for Land O' Lakes, enabling him to provide his clients both legal and practical business counsel. Mr. Thornton is a graduate of Hamline University School of Law.

Xu Jie is a senior partner at China member firm Beijing DHH Law Firm in its Shanghai office, where he chairs the firm's dispute resolution practice group and is vice chair of its real estate and construction practice group. Mr. Xu specializes in dispute resolution especially involving complex investment, financing, trade, maritime, real estate and infrastructure cases. He has also represented clients in landmark cases that have resulted in changes in maritime law. Mr. Xu is a graduate of East China University of Political Science and Law.

Yao Yuan is a partner at China member firm Beijing DHH Law Firm, where he focuses his practice on international trade, foreign investment and dispute resolution in China and abroad. Mr. Yao serves as legal counsel to several large scale trading enterprises in China such as Hiking Group, Shandong Foreign Trading Group and Laiwu Steel Group. He has vast experience in representing foreign clients and their interests, establishing representative offices in China and forming joint venture corporations and other business entities. He has also represented international clients such as Samsung Electronics and Cobra Europe in arbitration proceedings before the China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission, the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre, and the Shenzhen Arbitration Commission. Mr. Yao received his LL.B. from Zhongnan University of Economics and Law and his LL.M. from the University of Aberdeen School of Law in Scotland.