As the situation is evolving day by day and the coming months are clouded with uncertainty, Pirola Pennuto Zei & Associati is taking all the measures to ensure the continuity of its services and to remain committed to providing its clients with the best possible services.

In these challenging times, we are deeply concerned about the comfort, health and wellbeing of our people and their families, of our clients and friends and, in accordance with the directives of the Italian authorities and health experts, we fully comply with very strict and closely monitored hygiene measures within all our Offices.

We have also put all the best technology in place to implement remote working on a large scale to enable our teams to continue providing our services from home without interruptions.

If there is anything our Firm can do, or should you have any questions about the impact of coronavirus on any aspect of your business, we have set up a team of specialists who can provide insight into the legal and tax implications of the virus in Italy.
