WE'RE HERE TO HELP

During this difficult time, we realize that many in our RWL community of clients and friends may be in need of information, legal help or other resources.

To help you navigate these uncharted waters, we have arranged with certain of our trusted colleagues in other disciplines to provide you with easy access to real-time information and professional services as needed. Those resources include:

- RWL's Legal and Governmental Professionals – The RWL team is in regular contact on these important matters with policymakers and decisionmakers throughout state and local governments. We stand ready, willing and able to provide you and your business enterprises with assistance and information as needed. For ease of reference, please contact any member of the Firm by accessing: <https://www.rwllaw.com/>.
- Other Resources – For your convenience, we have also made arrangements with two of our trusted colleagues in the areas of business employment law and tax consultative services. Linda Hitt Thatcher, principal of the Thatcher Law Firm, LLC, recently became “Of Counsel” to our Firm. Linda is a well-recognized and equally well-respected employment law attorney. Linda can be contacted through RWL or her firm directly at <https://www.thatcherlaw.com/>. And, if you need tax-related consultative services, arrangements have been made with Rosen, Sapperstein & Friedlander, LLC. Again, you may contact RWL or Richard Friedlander from RS&F at <http://rsandf.com/>.
- SCG Legal – As a member of SCG Legal, a global network of law firms located in all 50 state capitals and major metropolitan areas nationally and internationally, RWL would be pleased to assist your efforts in addressing matters in Maryland, throughout the country and globally. For more information about SCG Legal: <https://scglegal.com/>
- Resource Library – RWL will continue to provide through these reports, up-to-date information on Maryland Executive Orders and other pertinent matters. We will also have them on our website for ease of reference. Below are a few of the recent press releases from Governor Hogan:
