SESSION | THE INTERSECTION OF BUSINESS OF LAW AND TECHNOLOGY

From the use of artificial intelligence (AI) to automating repetitive tasks, the practice of law is not what it used to be...and there is no turning back. The impacts of new technologies in the legal industry are now being experienced everywhere. November 2023 Wolters Kluwer's Future Ready Lawyer Report notes that 73% of lawyers globally are either currently using AI or expecting to be using AI in the next 12 months, indicating a willingness to embrace a wide range of technologies to practice law more efficiently. This session will focus on the intersection of technology and law, explaining how innovative tech platforms can offer more sophisticated professional development and business development opportunities.

SESSION | MERGING WORLDS: ANALYZING RISKS & REWARDS IN CROSS-BORDER M&A VENTURES

With companies looking for opportunities to expand in new places, cross-border M&As have emerged as one of the best ways to gain new market and customer access. As cross-border deal activity increases, companies need to consider the risks and rewards associated with pursuing these ventures versus making greenfield investments. This session examines the issues for which companies must prepare when engaging in such deals and offers insights on how these complexities can be successfully managed.

SESSION | LEGAL PRACTICES IN HIGHER EDUCATION WORLDWIDE

The higher education sector stands as one of the world's largest global industries, characterized by ongoing collaborations and investments among the Asia-Pacific, U.S., and Europe. Educational institutions uniquely straddle the realms of the public, private, and nonprofit sectors, giving rise to a distinctive set of legal and regulatory challenges. This session will delve into the unique legal landscape shaping higher education institutions worldwide. Discussion points will include an exploration of legal structures and regulations influencing these institutions, shedding light on crucial aspects such as international partnerships, collaborations, and joint academic initiatives as well as the legal considerations surrounding digital and online learning initiatives.
